6 UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
7 WESTERN DISTRICT OF WASHINGTON
8 AT SEATTLE

8 SAMUEL RYAN,

9 Petitioner,

10 v.

11 MAGGIE MILLER-STOUT,

12 Respondent.

Case No. C12-727 JCC-BAT

REPORT AND RECOMMENDATION

13 Pro se petitioner Samuel Ryan moves to stay his 28 U.S.C. § 2254 habeas petition because
14 he has a personal restraint petition (“PRP”) pending in state court and has not yet exhausted
15 state-court remedies. (Dkt. 9.) Respondent does not oppose petitioner’s motion but asks that 16 petitioner provide her and the Court with a certificate of finality at the conclusion of the state
17 PRP proceeding to indicate that the stay should be lifted. (Dkt. 10.)

18 The Court finds that the parties have demonstrated good cause for staying the present matter
19 as a “protective” habeas petition in light of petitioner’s risk of running afoul of the federal, one-
20 year statute of limitations. See Pace v. DiGuglielmo, 544 U.S. 408, 416 (2005). Mr. Ryan refers
21 to having more than one prior state PRP rejected on the merits. (Dkt. 6, at 3–4.) Should his 22 currently pending state PRP be rejected on procedural grounds, there is a real possibility that a
23 future habeas petition would be time-barred in federal court if, rather than staying this matter, the

1 Court were to dismiss the current habeas petition. See 28 U.S.C. § 2244(d)(1)–(2) (providing
2 that the federal statute of limitations is tolled only during the pendency of a “properly filed”
3 PRP).

4 The Court recommends GRANTING petitioner’s unopposed motion to stay and abey the 5 proceedings until his pending state-court PRP proceeding is completely adjudicated. (Dkt. 9.)
6 The Court also recommends: (1) directing respondent and petitioner each to file a status report
7 with Magistrate Judge Brian A. Tsuchida every ninety (90) days, beginning ninety (90) days
8 from the date of the order adopting this Report and Recommendation; (2) directing petitioner to 9 send to respondent and to the Court a copy of the certificate of finality for his currently pending
10 state PRP within fourteen (14) days of receiving it; and (3) striking all pending deadlines, and 11 providing that respondent need not file an Answer to the federal habeas petition until forty-five 12 (45) days after the stay of proceedings is lifted.

13 As the respondent does not oppose petitioner’s motion, the Court recommends if this 14 recommendation is adopted, that it be approved immediately. A proposed order accompanies this 15 Report and Recommendation.

16 DATED this 24th day of May, 2012 .
